

NAHUM, PROPHET OF GOD’S HOLY VENGEANCE:
ADDRESSING THE INVASION OF SENNACHERIB
(Nahum 1:1-14)

I. The Context (Nahum 1:1)

A. The _____ of the prophet

1. Name means “_____”

2. _____ of his birthplace is _____

3. The _____ of his prophecy: between _____ and _____ BC

B. The _____ of the prophecy

1. Theme is the _____ of God (1:1-11)

2. Application is specifically to His _____ upon _____
(1:12 – 3:19)

II. Our Great God (Nahum 1:2-8)

A. The _____ of His people

B. The _____ of justice

C. The King who is _____ with His _____

D. The omnipotent _____ of the _____

E. The _____ ruler against Whom _____ can stand

- F. The _____ refuge in “the day of _____”
- G. The _____ of the city of _____

III. Judgment Decreed (1:9-14)

- A. The distress Nineveh had caused will _____ be _____
- B. Nineveh’s opposition to God will be _____
- C. Nineveh should _____ the _____ from Sennacherib
 - 1. Despite Assyria’s _____ and their _____, they will “be _____ and _____”
 - 2. Assyria’s _____ of Judah has been _____, but it will _____
 - a. Freedom from Assyrian _____
 - b. Deliverance from Assyrian _____
- D. Nineveh’s _____ would _____
 - 1. God declared them _____
 - 2. God announced their pending _____

IV. Lessons

- A. It is God who _____, _____ and _____ nations
- B. Our _____ by _____ is under God’s _____
 - 1. Our _____ is _____ and always has a _____
 - 2. Our _____ will be _____