

NAHUM, PROPHET OF GOD'S HOLY VENGEANCE:
NINEVEH'S COMING DESTRUCTION
(Nahum 1:15 – 2:13)

I. The Good News _____ (Nahum 1:15; cf. Isa.52:7; Rom. 10:15-16)

A. A _____ announcement of _____

1. Reminder of the _____ of Sennacherib.
2. Promise of the _____ of Nineveh
3. Allusion to _____ from Babylon
4. Prophecy of _____ through Christ

B. A promise of restoration of _____ in _____

II. The Siege of Nineveh _____ (Nahum 2:1-13)

A. God's _____ against Nineveh (2:1-2)

1. He intends to _____ them and _____ the rubble
2. He _____ them with a warning to _____
3. He affirms the _____ of their _____

B. The _____ upon Nineveh (2:3-5)

1. They would be an army in _____
2. Their _____ would be “enveloped in _____ steel”
3. They would be followed by hoards of _____

4. Their chariots would dash _____ throughout the city, setting it _____

5. They will quickly seized control of the _____ and _____

C. The _____ of Nineveh's _____ (2:6-8)

1. The city would be _____ and the _____ destroyed

2. It will be _____ and survivors will be dragged into _____

D. The _____ of Nineveh (2:9-10)

1. "Empty it of _____ of _____"

2. It would be left _____ and a _____

3. Assyrians would be in _____

E. The _____ of Nineveh (2:11-13)

1. They boasted of being _____

2. God announces, "I am _____"

III. Lessons

A. God's _____ of His enemies will be _____ and _____

B. God's judgment upon His enemies always results in _____ of His _____

1. It is "_____"

2. It will _____

3. It will _____