

THE WORD AND GOD
(John 1:1-2)

- I. The meaning of "In the _____" (John 1:1 a)
- A. "Beginning" does not describe a _____ of _____ but refers to a _____
- B. "Beginning" includes the sense of _____
1. There was never a _____ when the Word _____
2. There was never a _____ which did not depend on the Word for its very _____
- C. "Was" communicates a state of _____ not of _____
- II. The meaning of "the _____" (John 1:1 a)
- A. The Greeks considered "the Word" the source of _____, _____, and _____
- B. The Jews considered "the Word" the _____ expression of the _____ and _____ of God

III. The _____ of the Word and God (John 1:1b-c)

A. The Word was a _____

1. Not an _____ God

2. Not an _____ God

B. The Word was a Person who was _____ God

C. The Word was a Person who was _____ God

D. The Word was a Person who was _____ God

E. The Word was a Person who was _____ God

1. He was not just " _____ "

2. He was not just " _____ " or " _____ "

IV. Restatement and Summary (John 1:2)

A. The Word is _____

B. The Word is _____ with God and _____ from Him

C. The Word is _____