THE WORD'S SUPREME EXCELLENCE (John 1:15-18)

| 1.  | I ne _ | to the Incarnation (John 1:15-16) |          |                                |             |  |  |  |  |
|-----|--------|-----------------------------------|----------|--------------------------------|-------------|--|--|--|--|
|     | A.     | The                               | testimon | y of                           | (1:15)      |  |  |  |  |
|     |        | 1.                                | A        | testimony, a matter of remains | that        |  |  |  |  |
|     |        | 2.                                | A        | testimony, declared            | before many |  |  |  |  |
|     |        | 3.                                | A        | of the                         | of Christ   |  |  |  |  |
|     |        |                                   | a.       | Jesus John                     |             |  |  |  |  |
|     |        |                                   | b.       | Jesus                          | John        |  |  |  |  |
|     | В.     | The                               | testimon |                                |             |  |  |  |  |
|     |        | 1.                                | We ha    |                                |             |  |  |  |  |
|     |        | 2.                                |          | is an inexhaustible            |             |  |  |  |  |
| II. | The _  | of the Incarnation (John 1:17-18) |          |                                |             |  |  |  |  |
|     | A.     |                                   |          | )                              |             |  |  |  |  |
|     |        | 1.                                | "The     | was given through              | "           |  |  |  |  |

|    | 2. |                        | and              |                | were realized through             |                     |  |
|----|----|------------------------|------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------|--|
|    |    |                        | "         |                |                                   |                     |  |
|    |    | a.                     | Jesus is the Inc | arnate         | , "full of                        | grace and truth"    |  |
|    |    | b.                     | Jesus is the     |                | of the                            | grace and truth the |  |
|    |    |                        | Law pr           | oves we        |                                   |                     |  |
| B. |    | v                      | was made         |                | with a clarity previously unknown |                     |  |
|    |    | (1:18                  |                  |                |                                   |                     |  |
|    | 1. | No _                   |                  | _ has ever see | en the                            | of Deity            |  |
|    | 2. | Jesus Christ "has" Him |                  |                |                                   |                     |  |
|    |    | a.                     | He is "the only  | begotten       | ,,                            |                     |  |
|    |    | b.                     | Не               | in (           | close                             | with the            |  |
|    |    |                        | Father           |                |                                   |                     |  |