Farewell Fellowship

David McKinney has nearly completed his Ph.D. and has accepted a teaching position at Bob Jones University. This means that the McKinneys will be moving to Greenville, SC, at the end of July. It is likely that the last Sunday they will be with us will be July 23. Therefore, instead of having our quarterly business meeting on the 23rd and a fifth-Sunday fellowship on the 30th, we are going to reverse those. On the 23rd at 5:00 p.m., we will have a farewell party for the McKinneys for which the church will provide a cake and the congregation will bring finger foods and ice cream. There will also be a basket in which folks may place a card.

July calendars are available on the table in the back of the auditorium.

Coming Up

- Deacons meeting after the evening service on July 16
 - Ben and Amy Fairchild presenting work in Indonesia in the AM service on July 23
 - Quarterly business meeting in the PM service on July 30

Thank you, Angela Stewart, for playing the piano for the congregational singing for a few weeks while Debbie is away.

All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness. Therefore, strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble, and make straight paths for your feet, so that the limb which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather be healed.

~ Hebrews 12:11-13
