

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE FOUR ETERNAL COVENANTS (PART 2)

I. The _____ Covenant (2 Sam. 7:12-16)

A. Provisions of this covenant

1. David would produce a _____, yet unborn, who would succeed him and _____ his _____
2. This son would build the _____ instead of _____
3. The _____ of his kingdom would be established _____
4. The throne not be _____, even though his _____ would justify it (1 Kings 11:1-13)
5. David's _____, _____, and _____ would be established _____ (cf. Luke 1:32-33)

B. Eschatological implications of this covenant

1. Israel must be _____ as a _____
2. Israel must have a _____ existence in the _____
3. David's Son, the Lord Jesus Christ, must _____ to the earth _____ and _____ to take David's _____

4. A literal _____ must be constituted over which the returned Messiah _____
5. This kingdom must become an _____ kingdom

II. The _____ Covenant (Jer. 31:31-34)

A. Provisions of the Covenant

1. _____ and _____
2. Promises a renewed _____ and _____
3. Includes _____ of _____
4. Promises indwelling of the _____ (cf. Ezek. 36:27)

5. Manifests the _____ ministry of the Holy Spirit
6. Israel will be blessed _____
7. Sanctuary will be _____ in _____
8. _____ shall _____ and _____ shall _____
(cf. Hos. 2:18)
9. Its foundation will be the _____ of _____
(cf. Zech. 9:11)

- B. Relation of the Church to this Covenant—a _____ interpretation
1. The church is the new covenant _____
 2. Israel was _____ and _____ by the church
 3. Therefore, the kingdom of God is _____, and the “land” is the _____ of _____

- C. Relation of the Church to this Covenant—a _____ interpretation
1. Requires _____ as the _____
 2. Covenant is with _____, so complete fulfillment will be in the _____
 3. Blessings to the _____ are based on Christ’s _____, shed to make the New Covenant with _____ possible

III. Summary of Important Features of the Four Covenants (cf. Isa. 59:21; 61:2, 8-9; Jer. 31:35-37; Ezek. 16:60-62; 34:26-27; 36:27; 37:26; Hos. 2:19-20)

- A. Israel will be a _____
- B. Israel is promised the _____
- C. Israel is promised a _____
- D. Israel is promised a _____
- E. Israel is promised a _____
- F. Israel is promised an _____

G. Israel is promised _____