Note from Pastor Downey

A huge thank you from Sherry and me to all who had a part in preparing for last week's Anniversary Sunday. A real treat for us was having my parents visit for the weekend and my dad preach in the service. The day still had several surprises for us, including the cake and cards, the generous cash gift, and the unexpected appearance of most of Arioso, the a capella group in which Sherry and I have been singing since 2006. But the greatest blessing of the day was the joyful worship of the Lord and our celebration together with you, our church family for twenty years (and counting). Sherry and I want to assure you of our love and gratitude.

Fifth Sunday – September 30

Sunday, September 30 is the fifth Sunday of the month. We will collect our regular benevolence offering in the morning service. Then in the evening we will have our regular time of fellowship and snacks in the Fellowship Hall.

Ladies: Years ago we collected household items to share with our missionaries who visited while on furlough. However, there has not been a need for this in a while. The items we have on hand are in the middle Sunday school room downstairs for church family to claim anything you could use. Whatever is not taken in the next couple of weeks will be donated elsewhere.
