Fifth Sunday – September 30

Since next Sunday, September 30, is the fifth Sunday this month, we are encouraged to contribute to the Benevolence Fund with our morning tithes and offerings. The evening service will be in the Fellowship Hall, where we will have a time of food and fellowship that will include an opportunity for testimonies and favorite songs from the Wilds books.

Donated Household Items

Don't forget to take a look at the collected household items in the middle Sunday school room downstairs and claim anything you can use. Whatever is not taken in the next couple of weeks will be donated elsewhere.

We cannot see the future, or know what lies ahead,
But in the Father's arms we can rest.
For He's working out His perfect plan for our lives.
He wants to give us His best.

I know the plans I have for you.
If you trust in Me, I will give to you
A life that is filled with blessing, a future, and a hope.
In spite of things your eyes may see,
You need not fear – you can trust in Me.
I am God, your Heavenly Father, and I love you.

Though the enemy may oppress you,
In My shelter you may hide.
I am your fortress, your place of refuge.
Come and walk by My side.

I know the plans I have for you.
If you trust in Me, I will give to you
A life that is filled with blessing, a future and a hope.
Lift up your voice! Rejoice and sing!
You are the child of the King of Kings!
I am God, Creator and Redeemer, and I love you.
I am God. You are My child. And I love you.
