FIFTH SUNDAY FELLOWSHIP

Fifth Sunday

Today is the fifth Sunday of the month, so we are encouraged to make contributions to the Benevolence Fund along with our regular tithes and offerings in the morning service. The evening service at 5:00 will be a time of refreshments in the Fellowship Hall (so bring food to share!)

No Choir Practice Today

---

Save the Date!

Saturday, April 6, will be our spring Fellowship Project (Work Day). All church members are encouraged to come that morning to help clean the buildings and grounds in advance of Easter Sunday (April 21). There is a sheet listing planned cleaning and maintenance projects on the bulletin board in the foyer.

Maintenance Alert

David and Jacob Spidle will not be able to continue to care for the church lawns this season. We are grateful for their two years of volunteer service on this time-consuming task. If anyone else would like to volunteer to take on this responsibility as a service to the Lord (and a significant financial savings for the congregation), please speak to Dr. Downey or Dr. Bryant. If no one volunteers in the next couple of weeks, the deacons will begin soliciting bids from lawn care services.

---

Dr. Downey's parents, Rev. Jim and Carol Downey, scheduled to arrive this week, moving into 215 Cooper Rd (where Walt Dove lived) on Saturday.
