THANKS GIVING

(2 Corinthians 9:15)

| I.  | The Biblical _ |                | for Giving               | (2 Cor. 9:1-15) |       |  |  |
|-----|----------------|----------------|--------------------------|-----------------|-------|--|--|
|     | A.             | The _          | of our                   |                 |       |  |  |
|     |                | 1.             | We are to give           |                 |       |  |  |
|     |                | 2.             | We are to give           |                 |       |  |  |
|     |                | 3.             | We are to give           |                 |       |  |  |
|     |                | 4.             | We are to give           |                 |       |  |  |
|     | В.             | The for giving |                          |                 |       |  |  |
|     |                | 1.             | Our giving               | God's           | in us |  |  |
|     |                | 2.             | Our giving               | God's           | to us |  |  |
|     |                | 3.             | Our giving               | God's           | in us |  |  |
|     |                |                |                          |                 |       |  |  |
| II. | The Biblical _ |                | f                        | or Giving       |       |  |  |
|     | A.             | Promi          | ises to the (2 Cor. 9:6) |                 |       |  |  |
|     |                | 1.             | Meager giving produces   |                 |       |  |  |
|     |                | 2.             | Meager giving risks      |                 |       |  |  |
|     |                | 3.             | Meager giving provokes G | od's            |       |  |  |

|      | В.     | 4.              | Meage     |                    |                                      |   |
|------|--------|-----------------|-----------|--------------------|--------------------------------------|---|
|      |        | Promises to the |           | ne                 | (2 Cor. 9:7-11)                      |   |
|      |        | 1.              | The recei |                    | ives blessings from both God and man |   |
|      |        |                 | a.        | God                | in the cheerful giver                |   |
|      |        |                 | b.        | God makes "all     | abound" to the faithful give         | r |
|      |        |                 | c.        |                    | of                                   |   |
|      |        |                 | d.        | God will           | us to                                |   |
|      |        | 2.              | The _     |                    | gets blessings from both God and man |   |
|      |        |                 | a.        | Their              | are supplied (9:12)                  |   |
|      |        |                 | b.        | They overflow with | to God                               |   |
| III. | Applio | cation          |           |                    |                                      |   |
|      | Α.     |                 |           | needs to           | their                                |   |
|      | B.     |                 |           | needs to           | their                                |   |