"Whate'er My God Ordains Is Right"

by Samuel Rodigast

Whate'er my God ordains is right: His holy will abideth;
I will be still, whate'er he doth, and follow where he guideth.
He is my God; though dark my road,
He holds me that I shall not fall:
And so to him I leave it all.
He holds me that I shall not fall.

Whate'er my God ordains is right: He never will deceive me;
He leads me by the proper path; I know he will not leave me.
I take, content, what he hath sent;
His hand can turn my griefs away,
And patiently I wait His day.
His hand can turn my griefs away,

Whate'er my God ordains is right: though now this cup, I'm drinking,
May bitter seem to my faint heart, I take it, all unshrinking.
My God is true; each morn anew
Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart,
And pain and sorrow shall depart.
Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart.

Whate'er my God ordains is right: here shall my stand be taken;
Though sorrow, need, or death be mine, yet am I not forsaken.
My Father's care is round me there;
He holds me that I shall not fall:
And so to him I leave it all.
He holds me that I shall not fall.
