

MARRIAGE AND THE RESURRECTION
(Matthew 22:23-33)

- I. The _____ (Matt. 22:23)
- A. The _____: wealthy _____ of Judaism
- B. The _____ issue
1. Denied virtually all things _____
 2. Mocked the idea that anyone could _____ from the _____
(cf. Acts 23:6-8)
- II. The _____ (Matt. 22:24-28)
- A. The _____ (22:24; cf. Deut. 25:5-6)
1. If a man died childless, his _____ would become the _____ of his _____
 2. Any son she bore the brother would be the _____ of the _____ (cf. Ruth 4:1-10)
- B. The _____ (22:25-27)
1. The first of _____ brothers died without a child, leaving his _____ to his _____
 2. Each of the other _____ died in succession, each having taken the widow as _____, and _____ producing a child
- C. The _____: “In the resurrection, _____ will she be?” (22:28)

III. The _____ (Matt. 22:29-32)

A. The _____ (22:29)

1. They did not understand the _____

2. They did not understand _____

B. The _____ (22:30-32)

1. Resurrected people are like _____ in _____ (22:30)

a. Resurrected people _____

1) Marriage is _____

2) Marriage is for _____

b. Resurrected people are _____ and

2. God is the God of the _____, not of the _____ (22:31-32)

a. To still be their _____ after they had _____ requires life _____ the _____

b. To fulfill His _____ after they had _____ requires _____ to _____

IV. The _____ (Matt. 22:33; Lk. 20:39-40)

A. The _____ were _____ (22:33)

B. Some of the _____ were _____ (Lk. 20:39)

C. The Sadducees were _____ into _____ (Matt. 22:34; Lk. 20:40)