

JACOB'S FAMILY MEETING
(Genesis 49:1-33)

- I. Jacob's _____ (Gen. 49:1-28)
 - A. The _____ of the message (49:1-2)
 - 1. _____ in form
 - 2. _____ in nature
 - B. Messages for the sons of _____ (49:3-15)
 - 1. Reuben is _____ and will not _____ (vv. 3-4)
 - a. Jacob knows of his _____
 - b. He will not receive the _____
 - 2. Simeon and Levi are cruelly _____ and willfully _____, so they will be _____ and _____ "in Israel" (vv. 5-7)
 - a. Simeon will be _____ by _____
 - b. Levi will assume the responsibility for the _____
 - 3. Judah, _____ and _____, will be _____ by his brothers, _____ over his enemies, and will _____ (vv. 8-12)
 - 4. Zebulun's promise is _____ (v. 13)
 - 5. Issachar's promise is also _____ (vv. 14-15)

- a. May mean he will be strong, hard-working, but _____
- b. May mean that he would tackle physically _____ tasks

C. Messages for the sons of the _____ (49:16-21)

- 1. Dan will “_____ his people” (vv. 16-17)
-  An “interlude” of _____ (v. 18)
- 2. Gad will be _____ by “raiders” but that he would overcome in the _____ (v. 19)
- 3. Asher is promised agricultural _____ (v. 20)
- 4. Naphtali will be swift and success in _____ and eloquent in _____ (v. 21)

D. Messages for the sons of _____ (49:22-27)

- 1. Joseph will be _____ but _____, yet made _____ by God (vv. 22-26)
- 2. Benjamin is a ravenous _____ which _____ prey in the morning and _____ the spoil at night (v. 27)

II. Jacob’s _____ (Gen. 49:28-33)

A. Jacob’s _____ emphasis

- 1. Identifies these as the “_____”
- 2. Included _____ twelve sons in his _____

B. Jacob’s final _____ to _____ him in _____

- 1. He anticipates his _____ and his future _____
- 2. He expects his burial to be a _____ of his _____