Today's Events

This morning the choir will be presenting The Mystery and the Majesty, a Christmas cantata by Joseph. M. Martin, accompanied by an orchestral soundtrack. Be sure to pick up the separate program with details including the words of all the songs.

There will no choir practice this evening. Regular rehearsals will resume on January 4.

This evening we will have our annual Christmas Dinner Party in the Fellowship Hall at 5:00 p.m. It is a “pot-luck dinner” for which all who are able are asked to bring enough food for your family's dinner with a little extra to share. The church will provide some fried chicken to supplement the meal. Arioso, the a cappella group directed by Dr. Downey, will sing a program of ten songs after dinner, which will be followed by games, a few carols, and a brief devotional. All who can are asked to stay to help with the after-dinner clean up.

Carols and Communion

Next Sunday evening, December 21, the evening service will be a time for singing your favorite carols and participating in the fellowship of the Lord's Supper. It will last no more than three-quarters of an hour.

We will have our mid-week prayer meeting this Wednesday at 7:00 p.m.
